Why you should publish

- Publish or Perish:
 - Your research is NOT complete until it has been published
- Present new and original results or methods
- Exchange ideas, communicate with peers -> Advance (not repeat) scientific knowledge and enhance scientific progress
- Credibility of results
- Grant writing, research funding
- Recognition and career advancement
- Personal prestige and satisfaction

As a leading STM publisher,
What can Springer do for you?

How to submit your paper to Springer

The screenshot shows the Springer website's authors page. At the top is a blue header with the Springer logo and navigation links: HOME, MY SPRINGER, SUBJECTS, SERVICES, PUBLISHERS, SPRINGER SHOP, and ABOUT US. There are also links for 'New User' and 'LOGIN'. A search bar with a 'GO' button and an 'Advanced Search' link is on the right. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column has a section titled 'Authors & editors' with links to 'Journal authors', 'Book authors & editors', 'Journal editors', 'Author academy', and 'Author newsletter'. Below this is a featured section for 'Author Academy' with a photo of a woman and the text 'Now with online courses', 'Author Academy: detailed advice on manuscript publishing', and a 'read more' link. The right column has a large heading 'Partner with Springer and publish with confidence', followed by a paragraph about the importance of choosing a publisher, a paragraph about the team's guidance, and a section 'Springer in 60 seconds'. Below this is another heading 'At Springer, you are in good company... and in good hands!' followed by a paragraph about Springer's history and reputation. At the bottom of the main content area is a 'Share' section with social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Google+, and a generic share button.

The screenshot displays the Springer Author Academy interface for the 'Word' template. The top navigation bar includes a 'Log out' link and the Springer logo. The main header reads 'Author Academy'. Below this, the breadcrumb trail shows 'Home / Book Author Academy / Templates / Word'. The 'Word' section is highlighted, and its description states that Springer provides templates for Word users to help structure manuscripts, with predefined style formats available for necessary structures. A note specifies that these templates are not for final page layout preparation, as Springer will handle the final layout. The 'Word template' section lists usage instructions: using a blank Word document or standard LaTeX book class, applying default settings and styles, and using Symbol and Arial Unicode fonts for special characters. A sidebar on the right, titled 'Book Author Academy', indicates an average completion time of 15 minutes and lists the following steps: STANDARD LAYOUTS, TEMPLATES, PERMISSION, MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION, FINAL CHECK & SUBMISSION, and QUIZ & CERTIFICATE. A 'NEXT' button is located at the bottom of the main content area.

Applied Psychophysiology and Biofeedback is an international, interdisciplinary journal which explores the interrelationship of physiological systems, cognition, social and environmental parameters, and health. Priority coverage is devoted to original research, basic and applied, which contributes to the theory, practice, and evaluation of applied psychophysiology and biofeedback. Additional sections include the Clinical Forum, offering separate categories for innovative case studies, clinical replication series, extended treatment protocols, and clinical notes and observations; the Discussion Forum, which includes papers centered on a topic of importance to the field; Innovations in Instrumentation; Letters to the Editor, commenting on issues raised in articles previously published in the journal; and select book reviews.

Applied Psychophysiology and Biofeedback is the official publication of the Association for Applied Psychophysiology and Biofeedback (AAPB).

Make Your Choice

In order to facilitate the production and publication of your article we need further information from you relating to:

- Please indicate if you would like to publish your article as open access with Springer's Open Choice option (by paying a publication fee or as a result of an agreement between your funder/institution and Springer).
- Please transfer the copyright, if you do not publish your articles as open access.
- Please indicate if you would like to have your figures printed in color.
- Please indicate if you would like to order offprints.

Answering the questions on the next few pages will take approximately 10 minutes of your time.

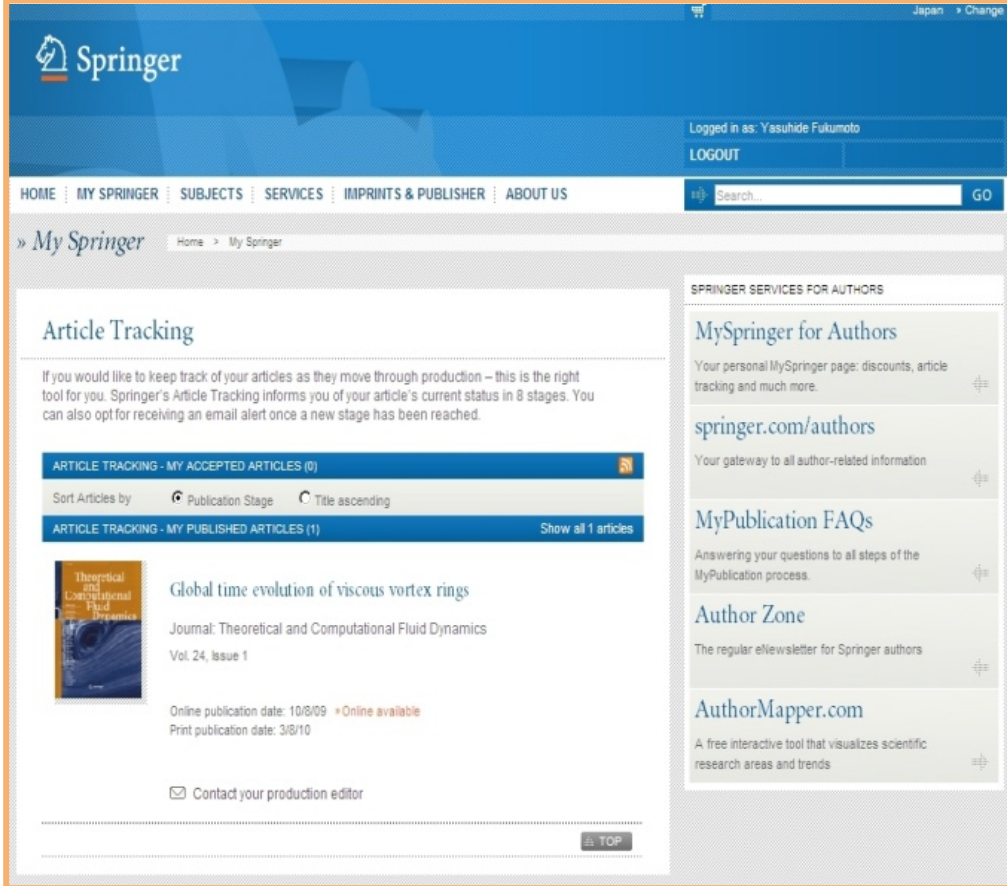

Please note: Be sure to complete the entire process until you get to the confirmation page. The subsequent production of your article depends on the finalization of the MyPublication process.

Please see our FAQ page if you have questions or problems completing the forms.

Author Survey

Give Us Your Opinion

Dear Author,

You have recently published the following article in "Prevention Science":

- Article Title: LateNight Penn State Alcohol-Free Programming: Students Drink Less on Days They Participate
- DOI: 10.1007/s11121-009-0160-y

Springer is constantly working on improving its service to the authors. We aim at offering high-quality journals as well as ensuring fast and efficient publication of the articles. For that reason, Springer's Author Satisfaction Program was set up to gather your experiences with publishing in that journal.

We kindly invite you to take part in a survey of about 10 minutes length. Your feedback will be highly appreciated.

Please click here to start with the survey:
